

AYA Educational Institute's "Sankofa Word" Summer 2003

www.ayaed.com

Language Arts Assignment during
Back to School Prep Summer Camp

AYA Co-director, Wekesa Madzimoyo, asked the student to write directions for a young man who was having trouble finding his way. The young man is trying to get to Waney's heart. Waney is the author's mythical best friend. What follows are Nefetari Whyte's directions to help him get there. Enjoy.

©Waney's Private Address

After you pull out of the parking lot of Good First Impressions, you're going to make a right at Forget-Me-Not Love Letters St.

You keep going until you see Guessing Highway N., wondering if she got your letters, and if so, did she love them.

This highway has a lot of twists and turns and you can lose your way, but you asked for it. You keep going until you see two exits--Deep Desire E. and True Love W.

Take exit True Love and go down until you pass three stop lights and take a right at Commitment Rd. After that, Commitment Rd. will lead you into a lovely place called Bliss Blvd.

Make a stop at First Love where Waney will be waiting with open arms.

Call AYA (404)296-9698

for African-Centered education that serves your student, your family, our people and all people.

Send props, kudos, abooris to the young author

Author: Nefetari Whyte

© Nefetari Whyte. Please do not reprint without express written permission.

Photo by: Wekesa O. Madzimoyo