AYA Weekend Academy Fall 2013

Staring Sept. 14th,
Sat 10AM – 2:30 PM Sun – 7-9:30PM

AYA Educational Institute dedicates its 2013-1014 Weekend Academy to Trayvon Martin. [TM] next to the course title indicates the courses that make up our Trayvon Martin curriculum. This curriculum is designed to provide psychic relief caused by the trauma of racism while providing the historical and instructional foundation for future warrior-healer-builder action by youth and adults. These TM courses are designed to be taken by youth and adults together. There is no additional cost for the youth accompanied by an adult. The instructors are trained to intertwine the issues raised by the Martin killing and the Zimmerman verdict within the context of the courses. Results: Academic Achievement – Psychic Relief – Historical Foundation & Inspiration for future action to challenge oppression and succeed in spite of it.

Of course we offer our unique approach to math, writing and reading development as well. Get full details and register at our website. All of AYA Courses are offered via live web conference rooms or face-2-face at select cluster sites where students gather. Advantage: Students can log in from home and still interact with other students and their instructors in real time. Others can attend from cluster sites in their neighborhood. Attend our Sunday Open House to see how it works or how you can sponsor a local cluster or volunteer. Sunday @ 8pm: www.startmeeting.com/wall/891-519-580. For more info call: Wekesa Madzimoyo @ 404.201.2356.

Tuition: Base Courses $99.00 – Tutorial Clinics - $99 per subject / $10 per session - $249/ per month for Family (all you can eat). Specialty Courses: $199.00. Community Partner Courses $10-10-50!
